Acknowledgement

I understand that by submitting this request where a new guarantee or an increase to the limit of an existing guarantee is required, Westpac will:

- obtain updated consumer credit information about you, the borrower, from a credit reporting body.
- disclose credit information and other personal information held by the Westpac Group about you, the borrower, to the guarantor or to a proposed guarantor for the purpose of them considering whether to offer to act as guarantor or agree to increase the guaranteed amount, as required by the Australian Banking Association's Banking Code of Practice, or otherwise as permitted by law.

I understand that if my request is approved:

- Westpac will collect the applicable fees in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the loan.
- If there have been periods of any arrears and/or hardship arrangements, Westpac may not be in a position to release any surplus funds and will be in contact to discuss any requirements.
- Westpac will close any nominated loan account and any linked offset facility will be cancelled.
- Westpac will liaise with the settlement representative or refiner including advising the payout figure required to release any property requested.
- Up to 5 business days prior to settlement, a freeze will be placed on any closing loan which will allow for no further withdrawals.
- Once settlement is booked, any direct debit from an account with another financial institution will be cancelled. If settlement is postponed, any required loan repayments will need to be paid manually.

Further information

- You can change your residential or mailing address online or by contacting us on 132 558.
- If you hold a Westpac Home & Contents insurance policy, you may arrange cancellation of the building component by calling 1300 650 255.
